DRESS UP OR COME IN RED FOR THE COLES COMMUNITY ROUND NEXT SATURDAY
Coles Community Round is a celebration of the Coles Little Athletics partnership at Little Athletics Centres across Australia. Athletes, volunteers and families can participate by wearing red or dressing up as a Coles chef or produce manager, etc. as part of the theme. We have our usual events, but will also include a banana discus, banana shot put or a banana (orange) race.

We have received a new Coles marquee, tablecloth and chef hats, some $10 vouchers, and selfie frames for photos. It's a bit of fun (not for the bananas!) and acknowledges the donation of bananas to every athletics centre across Australia.

PORT HUNTER ZONE CHAMPIONSHIPS AT RTAC ON 21 & 22 NOVEMBER
There are 40 RTAC athletes and a total of 308 athletes for the weekend. On the back of the noticeboard is the RTAC athlete and event list and the Order of Events that lists the "NOT BEFORE" time. The first call for events on both days is at 9:15, first events begin at 9:30.

ZONE DUTIES
Because we are supplying 7 Officials for the whole weekend, we have been allocated a reduced number of duties for the weekend, all for just 1 hour. Some of these officials don't even have children competing, so we are very fortunate. We have just the computer room (inside our building) and the BBQ. All parent helpers need to wear enclosed shoes. The roster is on the wall next to the canteen "window".
